

How to read your member ID card

We updated your member ID cards. Here's a simple way for you to know which sections of your new card are important to you.

FRONT

- 1 Cigna Logo: A Cigna logo on the front of your card means providers in the Cigna PPO network are your primary providers, because you live outside the state of Michigan.<sup>1</sup> You'll need to search for a provider within the Priority Health network if you want to get care in the state of Michigan. Read more about finding a doctor wherever you are on the back of this page.
- 2 Contract number: Your member ID number is unique to you.
- 3 Name: Your first and last name is listed on your card.
- 4 Group # and name: Your group number is unique to your plan type or employer.
- 5 Health plan: The name of your plan.
- 6 Dependents: Any dependents on your plan, like a child or spouse, are found here.

BACK

- 1 Member: How to call Customer Service and Behavioral Health and instructions on where to find a doctor are located on the back of your card.
- 2 Provider: Whenever you receive care, make sure your doctor has your health insurance information. This portion of the card is the information they need to know.
